Recommendation of the mentor:

As mentors, it is a great pleasure to give exceptional recommendations to Gordan Blažić, who showed the extraordinary skills and abilities required for the position of junior front end developer through the program of practice.

The tasks and projects envisaged by the plan and program were done precisely, accurate and in a given time where each task had full integration of the learned technologies with the given plan and program, and not only these tasks but also tasks which contained advanced concepts.

He completely worked on all his tasks and projects independently and was a very good colleague. He is an exceptional team player and has strong team virtues. As a team leader during teamwork on projects he proved to be excellent, extremely dedicated to each team member, he motivated them to work within the team. He unselfishly helped colleagues during each project. He is extremely calm and steady.

He has exceptional design capabilities and has excellent development solutions. Excellent in logical conclusion. He is a conscientious and responsible person in every segment of the job. Very organized and systematic. He writes a very legible and precise code.

The commitment to programming and working during this practice sufficiently reflected in the fact that he had 100% attendance at classes.

Successfully mastered the following technologies:

HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, jQuery, TypeScript, Angular 2, Gulp, GIT, Bootstrap 3

On the final project at DoT Practice, Gordan Blažić showed extraordinary commitment, application of acquired knowledge during practice and fully completed all the tasks stipulated by the project specification within his team and the assigned work within the team.
